

A territorial open day took place on 10th September 2010 in Latisana Friuli Venezia Giulia Region (Italy). This event gave the opportunity to inform the participants about FATE projects, its ongoing activities and to present the process of rehabilitation of the brownfield identified in this territory as pilot action of the project. Some photos of the event are available on the photogallery.