

In order to communicate the progress of the project to a wider public of the region, the Drama Chamber is planning a major promotional event that will take place on the 26th of May at the Drama Chamber Conference Center. The promotional event will start at 19:00 and will end at about 22:00 with three different promotional meetings that will be directed to three different parts of local audiences. Further details available clicking on the calendar.